

Home Counties Buses Guildford

We recommend...

1

Safeguard Coaches 4/4A/5/5A

Guildford - Royal Surrey Hospital & Park Barn (circular)

Safeguard is a well-respected independent operation with this corridor playing host to its main commercial service. Its size has not stopped the company from innovating, and mobile tickets are reportedly well-used. This and more combine to form an attractive passenger experience.

2

Stagecoach South 715

Guildford - Cobham - Esher - Kingston-upon-Thames

When Abellio announced that it was pulling out of the majority of its Surrey CC contracts, routes were put out to short term tender. Stagecoach South have made an entrance into Kingston in the form of this 715 service. Modern buses are used and service marketing has been significantly improved.

3

Arriva Max 34/35

Guildford - Woking - Camberley

Arriva's brand for interurban links, Max is not so prevalent in the South East, and together with its part-allocation of Citaros, routes 34 and 35 offer a most comfortable journey to the north west of Surrey. It seems both the brand and the bus have numbered days so get your ride in quickly!

4

Buses Excetera 479

Guildford - Little Bookham - Leatherhead - Epsom

The various Excetera operations have garnered quite the reputation in the past, but now seem to be making a return to the good times as at its inception. Route 479 has seen many changes in recent years, and most certainly brings a varied fleet into town.

Buses also run from Guildford to...

- Cranleigh
- Redhill
- Alton
- Woking
- Aldershot
